Remarks

Breathtaking and poised alongside Crescent beach on Siesta Key, discover the rare opportunity to own a spacious beachfront condo that combines contemporary design, durability, and pet-friendly living. With only 26 residences in the community, the Crescent offers an intimate, exclusive lifestyle with an eye-catching façade and meticulously maintained grounds that stands out amongst the adjacent communities. The exterior elegance is paired perfectly with an exceptional, 1,883 square foot interior featuring neutral tones, luxurious furnishings and delightful coastal charm. Three bedrooms and a den afford you the ability to entertain your family and friends with ease while the generous designer kitchen and open concept living area allow you to enjoy every moment and memory of your festivities. Step outside to savor the sea breeze on either one of your two terraces, one with views of the crystal blue waters of the Gulf and the other with a built-in gas grill overlooking the dazzling mid-complex pool. Saunter to the gulf front pool, situated at the western edge of the property, featuring luxury loungers and a soothing whirlpool hot tub. You will feel the difference of the interior luxury finishes while enjoying ton of the line amenities including an onsite property manager, social room.
